G.O.Ms.No.413, Dated 21st February 1949
Read the following:--

G.O.Ms.No.1986 Revenue, dated 28th June 1943
From the Inspector-General of Registration No.501-Accts., dated 4th September 1948
Memorandum to the Inspector-General of Registration No.52437-J/48-1 Revenue, dated 25-9-1948
From the Inspector-General of Registration No.501-Accts., dated 28th October 1948.

O r d e r:

In G.O.Ms.No.1986 Revenue, dated the 28th June 1943, sanction was accorded for the duration of the war, for the payment of a daily wages not exceeding annas ~~eight~~ eight, instead of the daily wage of annas four only, which was being paid till then, to temporary substitutes employed in the Registration Department in the place of peons absent on remittance duty or on account of court attendance. In the circumstances reported by the Inspector-General of Registration in his letters dated 4th September 1948 and 28th October 1948 the Government sanction the continuance of the payment of the enhanced daily wages upto a maximum of annas eight, as a temporary measure for a further period of two years from 1st October 1948. They consider that the question of fixing the rate of daily wages on a permanent basis should await the return of normal conditions.

2. The Government also sanction the expenditure of Rs.181-6-0 (Rupees one Hundred and eighty one and annas six only) incurred towards payment of daily wages for the period from 1st April 1946 to 30th September 1948.

3. The concessions sanctioned in Government Order (Ms.) No.1986 Revenue, dated the 28th June 1943 was only for the duration of the war (i.e.) till 31st March 1946. The Government consider that the Inspector-General should have applied in time for the continuance of the concession beyond that date and that he should not have lost sight of the matter for such a long time.

(By Order of H. E. the Governor)

G. Venkateswaran,
Secretary to Government.

To the Inspector-General of Registration
To the Accountant-General through the Finance Department.
